1. Completion of this assignment will count for one hour of livestock education time. Please read directions, you have choices.
2. Publication from University of Kentucky provided, Making a Country Ham. .
3. Read remainder of publication that you began in November 2020.
4. Summarize main points that you can use in a speech and/or an essay from the remaining pages.
5. Essays will likely be 500 for Juniors, and 750 words for Seniors. Write 200 words that you can use for the remainder of your essay and or speech. Use complete sentences. If you do not have note book paper please use the back of this page. You may type if preferred. Make sure your name is on it when your work is submitted.
6. If you choose (if you are new – do this). Watch the video by Dr. Gregg Rentfrow about how to Make a Country Ham. The video is linked on the Kenton 4-H website under country ham, fourth choice in the country ham section. It is a U tube video <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qcwu6K4crHc>
7. If you choose to watch the video: write down some main points you learned that would be interesting for your essay or speech.
8. Neatness counts, the adult grading must be able to read your work.
9. The intent is that you will be permitted to use this for your speech or essay depending on what you are instructed to do for State Fair 2021.
10. Questions. Contact a Certified 4-H Livestock Volunteer.
