A Note From Jackie

November is a time to be thankful.

I am very thankful for all of the Kenton County Homemaker Members. You never cease to amaze me with your generosity of time, and talents.

I hope that you enjoyed BUNCO and the classes held during KEHA week last month.

This month, we have a Cookie Exchange and craft planned for November 8th at Kenton Lands (See enclosed flyer). I am looking forward to this event and enjoying all of the different recipes we will be sharing.

I want to thank all of you for the cards, good thoughts and prayers that you sent my way. My recovery is going well and I am feeling much better.

Hugs,
Jackie Waibel

CLUB NEWS

October 2024

Independence Homemakers Club

Independence homemakers had their first meeting that did not include a business meeting. They made rope bowls and had a great time! The next meeting will be Nov. 18, 2024 at 11:00 AM

Groovy Land Club

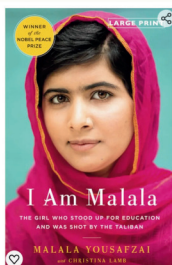

At the groovy land meeting we made scarecrows from whiskey bottles. We are planning out a year of fun and adventure! The next meeting will be Nov. 25, 2024 at 7:00 PM

Virtual Club

Our club continues to enjoy crafting and reading (Many of our members are also part of the Book Club). We meet via Facebook and would love to have you join us! The name of the group page is, The Virtual Kenton County Homemakers. We are also continuing to collect items for Be Concerned. This month we are collecting Feminine Items. Other basic items are always welcome. If you have questions please contact Brenda Clark (brendajjclark@gmail.com).

Book Club

This month we will be reading, I Am Malala: The Story of the Girl Who Stood Up for Education and was Shot by the Taliban by Malala Yousafzai. Our meeting to discuss this book will be Thursday, November 21, 2024. We meet each month at LaRosa (Independence), beginning at 6pm. We are continuing to collect items for Be Concerned. This month we are collecting Feminine Items. And, of course, any items are always welcome!
